PRESS RELEASE

Ecobank Transnational Incorporated announces the departure of three members from its board of directors.

Lomé, Togo, November 24, 2026- Ecobank Transnational Incorporated (ETI), the parent company of the Ecobank Group, announces the departure of three members from its Board of Directors as follows:

1. Mr. David O'Sullivan, Non-Executive Director, nominated by Qatar National Bank, who retired from the Board upon the expiry of his term;
2. Ms. Zanele Monnakgotla, Non-Executive Director, nominated by Public Investment Corporation, who retired from the Board upon the expiry of her term; and
3. Ms. Esther Chibesa, Independent Director, who resigned from the Board to pursue other interests.

The Board, Management and staff of ETI thank the departing Directors for their valuable contributions to the Ecobank Group and for their continued willingness to support the Group whenever called upon.

Madibinet Cisse
Company Secretary

– Ends –

Media Contact Ecobank Group

groupcorporatecomms@ecobank.com

About Ecobank Group (or 'Ecobank Transnational Incorporated' or 'ETI')

Ecobank Group is the leading private pan-African banking group with unrivalled African expertise. Present in 34 sub-Saharan African countries, as well as France, the UK, UAE and China, its unique pan-African platform provides a single gateway for payments, cash management, trade and investment. The Group employs over 14,000 people and offers consumer, commercial, corporate and investment banking products, services and solutions across multiple channels, including digital, to over 30 million customers. For further information, please visit www.ecobank.com